ONE YEAR IN PUGDOM; ITS ADDITION TO HISTORY

Events of 12 Months Leave Welterweights Without a Champion.

ESPITE the fact that the past year was decidedly an off one for he game of pugilism, barred as it has been from so many former centres, there were some very good battles fought, and the fight fans had plenty to keep them reading, and reading was about all they sould do in most cities. They could not see much fighting unless they hiked to 'Frisco or the Quaker

There were three large disturbances In the heavy-weight division, all factors in the ensking of fistic history. Marvin Hart was given a decision over the negro, Jack Johnson, who had been on Jeffries's trail until the Kentuckian whipped him. Hart's next fight was with Jack Root, whom he knocked out. The mighty Jeffries having retired, Hart claimed the championship, but as get no one has taken him seriously.

Only recently the venerable Ruby Robert re-entered the ring, met the little and active Jack O'Brien and collapsed after a furious fight for thirteen rounds. That fight places Ryan in line for the championship, provided Jeff has permanently retired. There was noe much doing in the middleweight class, although there was considerable skirmishing among the men just over the limit. Jack Twin Sullivan bested Mike Schreck and fought a draw with Jack O'Brien. O'Brien also lost a close decision to Hugo Kelly at Indianapolis.

The weiter class, owing to the retirement of Joe Walcott, is without a head, although there are some strong candidates, among whom are Willie Lewis, Joe Gans, Mike Sullivan, Jianmy Garder, Honey Mellody, Jack O'Keefe and Martin Canole. Lewis gained much notoriety by defeating Martin Canole and Jack O'Keefe and through his match with Walcott being stopped by the police.

Walcott then retired and it is said that Lewis caused this retirement.

"Buddy" Ryan came to the front by a round, but "Buddy" later on fell before Jimmy Gardner and Gardner then lost to Mike Sullivan. Lewis is to fight Wille Fitzgerald this week and Joe Gans meets Mike Sullivan, the winner's of these fights will have a chance to fight it out for the welterweight champlonship.

Gams meets Mike Sunive a chance of these fights will have a chance of the fight it out for the welterweight championship.

James Edward Britt, Young Corbett and Dattling Nelson were the figures in the lightweight division. Nelson defeated them both and now claims the title being that Gans has gone into the welterweight class.

In the 12-pound division Terry McGovern is away up in front. He came back to life and took all the chanpionship aspirations out of Tommy Murphy in one round. Kid Herman came into prominence by defeating Eddie Hanlon and will be matched with Young Corbett if the latter defeats Herrera.

The feather-weight division at 122 pounds, has no head. Abe Attell claims the title, but has not fought one fight this year that would entitle him to consideration.

Attell Wants Too Much Money.

Abe Attell, the California boxer, has put such a high price on his services to box a fitteen-round bout that he has certainly lost an excellent match in New England. Attell was offered a battle with Kid Goodman before the Douglas A. C., of Chelsea, Mass., this month, but as Attell demanded that he receive $500 for his end whether he won or lost Matchmaker Billy Pierce immediately called off the negotiations.

Scraps at Show of the Navarre A. C.

One of the best stag shows since such shows were first permitted to be carried on in New York was held by the Navarre A. C. in its club-house at American Theatre Hall, Forty-second street and Eighth avenue, last night. Eight bouts were fought, and from the moment the boxers got busy until they left the ring jabs, upper cuts, swings, hooks and cross counters were dealt out like shells from a rapid-fire gun.

The opening bout had for principals rankie Howe, of Chicago, and Larry McGrath. Howe handed Larry a good Johnson this matchmaker has certainly made a serious mistake. Then followed a great three-round encounter between "Young Cream Puff" Goldman and Jimmy Moran. These little fellows banged each other for keeps throughout the three rounds, exchanging blows at lose quarters which came so fast that they were both tired at the final bell. It was a good even battle, and both oys received an ovation when they left the ring.

While Johnson is the legitimate colored champion, no one wants to see him or any other colored fighter in action. Colored fighters frequently are tricky persons, and when once two of them meet they usually frame up a bout before they enter the ring, and as a result the contest is an unsatisfactory one. In some of the clubs the match-makers will not let colored puglists box. which is a wise think. If other match-The principals in the next bout were Jack Goodman, the Avonia A. His straight tabs to the face and right-hand uppe Jabs to the face and right-hand upper-cuts to Stein's body gave him a good lead in the first two rounds, but in the last round Stein cut loose and certainly made it warm for Jansen by landing four right-hand swings on the jaw and damaged right ear, which seemed to tire him. It was a good, even bout and the spectators thoroughly enjoyed it. Aurelio Herrera threatens to retire from Aureno Herrera threatens to ratire from the ring if he does not succeed in defeating Young Corbett at Los Angeles Friday night. He is now down to weight and is in the best possible condition. Corbett, it is said, is having more or less difficulty in making the weight, which necessitates hard work. He is attending strictly to business, and evidently realizes that if he meets defeat at Herrera's hands he will have difficulty in ever getting another bout with a first-class man.

HEAVYWEIGHTS NOT GOOD FOR ATHLETIC CLUB STAGS

One Matchmaker Has Violated Agreement by Signing Up Jack Johnson.

BY JOHN POLLOCK. Although it was agreed by the different matchmakers of the legitimate athletic clubs in this city who are holding boxing stags that they would put on no heavyy-weights in any of their bouts, one matchmaker has broken that promise by engaging Jack Johnson, the colored heavy-weight champion, to meet Joe Jeannette, another col-ored "pug" of little importance, in a three-round bout at a stag to be pulled off a week from to-night. is regarded as the most remarkable event in the history of sporting competition in this or any other country. It will be the two-mile midget relay race. The public schools of New York are just now the hotbeds of athletic development, and there is scarcely a school in the greater city that hasn't its group of athletes. Other events of interest will be the one-mile intercity relay, open to New York, Philadelphia and Brooklyn, the one-mile relay open to members of the Church Athletic League and Young Men's Christian Association, one-mile intercollegiate and a 300-yard hurdle and a ten-mile run in which all the famous long-distance men of America will compete.

merchess jab in his face all his and mouth were filled with blood. In a mix-up Russell threw Sullbran through the ropes.

Sullivan came back better than metat bave been expected for the third, and though he had to take the most of the punishment was always gamely back for more.

Near the end of the round he draw blood from Russell's mouth. The round was all the same way.

The fifth nearly saw the end. Russell downed Sulfivan for the count with a short right to the jaw. Sullivan got to his feet in time, but was weak the rest of the way. Russell made a strong effort to win with a knockout in the Some Great Three - Round fort to win with a knockout in sixth, but Sullivan stayed it out. PANTZ AND SIDNEY DRAW.
